SYCOM® TRADING HOURS

SFE would like to extend its condolences to those personally touched by the recent events in the USA. From an exchange and market perspective, trading over the last twelve hours has been both orderly and consistent with maintaining 'a fair and orderly market'.

Prior to the opening day session on Wednesday morning, SFE consulted with a number of parties including regulators and other exchanges in the Asia/Pacific region and again reaffirmed that normal trading hours would continue to be in effect. Accordingly, normal trading hours will continue to be in effect unless SFE determines that the market is not operating in 'a fair and orderly' manner.
