DISCIPLINARY ACTION IMPOSED BY THE BUSINESS CONDUCT COMMITTEE

Participants are advised, pursuant to General By-Law G.11.65, of disciplinary action taken by the Business Conduct Committee (BCC):

PARTICIPANT 1

It was identified that an Associate Participant failed to comply with:

- 1. General By-Laws G.4.16(m)(ii) and G.4.16(n)
(Failure to execute Client Agreement Documentation).

Pursuant to General By-Law G.11.3(d), the Participant notified the Compliance department of its failure to execute the required client agreement documentation with five clients before accepting orders from them.

In accordance with General By-Law G.11.36(b), the Committee imposed a fine of $1,000 upon the Participant for the identified breach.

In determining the level of penalty, the Committee noted that this was a repeat offence and had the issue not been self-reported to the Exchange by the Participant, the Committee would have imposed a more severe penalty upon the Participant.

PARTICIPANT 2

It was identified that a Full Participant failed to comply with:

- 1. General By-Law G.37(a)
(Late submission of Reportable Position File).

The enquiry identified that the Participant failed to lodge the file by the due time and was not able to demonstrate that this was due to circumstances beyond its control.

In accordance with General By-Law G.11.36(d), the BCC imposed a Reprimand upon the Participant as this was a repeat offence.
