

SFE NOTICE NO. 209/09

Date of Issue: 8 December 2009
Effective Date: See below

AMENDMENTS TO THE DETERMINATIONS TO ASX NEW ZEALAND ELECTRICITY FUTURES AND OPTIONS CONTRACTS

The Determinations to the New Zealand Base Load Electricity Futures Contract and Strip Options over New Zealand Base Load Electricity Future Contract will be amended to reflect how daylight saving is incorporated into the underlying electricity market. The determinations to SFE Operating Rules 6.68.1 and 6.68.2 will refer to 'New Zealand time' rather than 'New Zealand Standard Time'. These amendments will be effective from and including 9 December 2009.

Item 1.2 of the New Zealand Base Load Electricity Futures Contract (Rule 6.68.1) will also be amended to refer to 'New Zealand time' rather than 'New Zealand Standard Time'. This amendment will take effect on 4 January 2010 (subject to regulatory clearance).

The relevant amended SFE Operating Rule 6.68.1 and the Procedures, Determinations and Practice Notes of the SFE Operating Rules are attached to this Notice.
